A note from your teachers:

Parent(s):

Hey all! We're down to 4 more days or our 1st quarter...WOW!! We have a busy week ahead of us. Case 21 testing begins on Tuesday, so have them rest up Monday night. They'll start with ELA, followed by Math, then Science.

Please make sure reading goals are ready to be turned in on Wednesday. In addition, the book fair is this week. We will preview books Wednesday afternoon, and purchase on Thursday.

Finally, don't forget about the DC parent meetings on September 5-6. You only need to attend one session as they're both the same. We'll include information on the itinerary, what to pack etc.

As always, let us know if you have any questions. Have a great weekend!
